

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FORM

inside

For all students across Canada who are now in their final year of high school and/or CEGEP.

RBC Royal Bank Financial Lifeskills Scholarships

RBC Royal Bank Financial Lifeskills Scholarships honour the achievements of senior students across Canada, and help pay for post-secondary and/or post-CEGEP education. This year, ten scholarships will be presented to students entering their first year of full-time study in college or university (and/or CEGEP in Quebec). Each scholarship has a value of $2,009. The awards will be distributed with appropriate regard to region, population, gender, and language.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

The $2,009 will be allocated in Year One of the student's program.

Applicants must be graduating from the final year of high school (and/or CEGEP in Quebec), and have a minimum grade average of 65 per cent. Students must also be registered/accepted at a college or university in Canada for the 2009 Fall/Winter session.

In order to qualify for the scholarship students must send in a completed application form with supporting documentation. Original materials will not be returned. The application deadline is May 8, 2009.

Once students are accepted at the institution of their choice, they must supply us with a copy of their letter of acceptance. Applications will not be processed without this document.

The selection of the winners is determined by a committee of Highschool, university and college representatives with expertise in admissions and evaluations. Selection is based on the points outlined under ELIGIBILITY.

All applicants must authorize the release of any information relating to their application to the RBC Royal Bank Financial Lifeskills Scholarship Program. Information may be requested from high school, college, university, government, or community sources, and may include personal evaluations and transcripts. The information resulting from such a request may be used for the scholarship program publicity or promotion purposes.

TOTAL VALUE: $2,009
