RBC partners with the Barracuda Artistic Swimming Club to support local talent

ORANJESTAD, October 28, 2025 – RBC Royal Bank (Aruba) N.V. (“RBC”) is proud to announce its sponsorship of the Barracuda Artistic Swimming Club of Aruba as the team prepares to represent the island at the 2026 Central American and Caribbean Games (CAC).

Pierre Rafini, Vice President, Commercial Banking, Dutch Caribbean and Country Manager, Aruba shared his excitement about the partnership.

“I am truly honored to announce our sponsorship of the Barracuda Artistic Swimming Club,” Rafini said.

“As a father of an artistic swimmer, I am no stranger to the amazing world of artistic swimming. I have witnessed the dedication of these young athletes firsthand, including training six days a week, demonstrating commitment, perseverance, and an unwavering passion for the sport,” he added.

Artistic swimming is a hybrid form of swimming, dance, and gymnastics.

RBC Royal Bank has long been a supporter of youth and community development in Aruba. The bank remains committed to making a positive impact in the communities it serves, and this sponsorship reflects that ongoing commitment.

Rafini continued, “At RBC, we believe that sports play a vital role in shaping the minds and characters of our future leaders. Sports have a unique ability to teach valuable life skills such as teamwork, discipline, and perseverance – qualities that are essential for success in all areas of life. Our commitment to youth development through sports is rooted in our desire to build stronger, more resilient communities.”

Rafini also congratulated the swimmers, coaches, parents and supporters of the Barracuda Artistic Swimming Club and wished them a successful and inspiring season.
