Please refer to the “What is not covered” and “General exclusions” sections of the Certificate of Insurance for full details on Auto Rental Collision/Loss Damage Insurance.

Examples of What is not covered and General exclusions

This coverage does not cover third party liability coverage. Check with your personal automobile insurer and the rental agency to ensure that you and all other drivers have adequate third party liability, personal injury and damage to property coverage.

The length of time you rent the same vehicle must not exceed forty-eight (48) consecutive days, which shall follow one immediately after the other. In order to break the consecutive-day cycle, a full calendar date must exist between rental periods. Coverage may not be extended for more than forty-eight (48) consecutive days by renewing or taking out a new rental agreement with the same or another rental agency for the same vehicle or another vehicle.

Who can be insured?

Coverage is available for the following covered persons who are permanent residents of Canada and are either:

- the applicant or additional cardholder who presents in person at the rental agency, signs the rental contract and takes possession of the rental vehicle; or
- any other person who drives the same rental vehicle with your permission whether or not such person has been listed on the rental vehicle contract or has been identified to the rental agency at the time of making the rental. However you and all drivers must otherwise qualify under and follow the terms of the rental contract and must be legally licensed and permitted to drive the rental vehicle under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the rental vehicle shall be used.

When does the insurance coverage begin and end?

Upon taking possession of the rental vehicle, coverage begins when:

- you use your RBC Visa Platinum card and/or RBC Rewards points to pay for the entire cost of the rental from a rental agency. If only a partial payment is made using RBC Rewards points, the entire balance of that rental must be paid using your RBC Visa Platinum card in order to be covered; and
- you decline the rental agency's Collision Damage Waiver (CDW) option or similar coverage offered by the rental agency on the rental contract. If there is no space on the vehicle rental contract for you to indicate that you have declined the coverage, then indicate in writing on the contract "I decline CDW provided by this merchant". (Note: If you purchase the rental agency's CDW option or similar coverage, then you will only be covered for your deductible in the event of a claim provided all terms and conditions of this coverage are met.)

Examples of when coverage ends individually for each covered person:

On the earliest of the following:

- The date and time the rental agency reassumes control of the rental vehicle
- The date on which your rental period exceeds forty-eight (48) consecutive days or your rental period is extended for more than forty-eight (48) consecutive days by renewing or taking out a new rental agreement with the same or another rental agency for the same vehicle or other vehicles
- The date you or the Royal Bank cancels your RBC Visa Platinum account

For additional details on when coverage begins and ends, please refer to the Certificate of Insurance.

Can I cancel my insurance?

As this insurance coverage is not purchased separately and is included with the RBC Visa Platinum card, this is not a coverage that can be cancelled and/or refunded. If you choose to cancel your credit card, the coverage will terminate at the same time.

How do I submit a claim?

To file a claim

Once you report the loss/damage, a claim file will be opened and will remain open for six (6) months from the date of the loss/damage. Payment will only be made for a claim or any part of a claim that is completely substantiated as required by the claims administrator within six (6) months of the date of the loss/damage.

Time for Insurer to pay a claim
