

Terms and Conditions

("Terms")

By accepting these Terms and submitting your pre-approval application, you understand and agree as follows:

1. This contract is between Royal Bank of Canada ("we", "us", "RBC", or the "Bank") and an individual ("you") who is seeking a mortgage pre-approval.
2. This online mortgage pre-approval tool (the "Tool") calculates, based on the information you provide, the maximum mortgage lending amount you may be pre-approved for by RBC at the present time should you choose to submit a full application for mortgage financing to RBC. The results provided by this Tool are based on the accuracy and completeness of the information you have provided.
3. The Tool is intended to provide you with an estimate of how much you may be able to spend on the purchase of a residential property that will be an owner-occupied primary residence, with your down payment and with RBC mortgage financing for which you may qualify with a full application. If the pre-approval application you submit using this Tool is approved, you will receive a pre-approval confirmation letter from RBC after confirming your request for same within the Tool, which letter will contain a rate guarantee and rate hold, which will be valid for one hundred and twenty (120) days or such other period as may be specified in the pre-approval confirmation letter; it will also set out other relevant information, terms, and conditions. Any results generated by your use of this Tool are based on the accuracy and completeness of the information you have provided, and are subject to additional terms and conditions, as further described in these consolidated Terms and in any additional communications RBC may provide to you, including but not limited to the pre-approval confirmation letter.
4. If you access and use the Tool, you accept and agree to be bound by and comply with (i) these Terms and (ii) any additional terms, conditions, legal notices and disclaimers in the footers, content, other pages of the Tool, behind links, buttons or icons within the Tool, and/or within any pre-approval confirmation letter that you may receive from RBC (the "Additional Terms"). Further, if you access and use the Tool, you acknowledge and agree that changes may be made to these Terms at any time without notice, by the updated version being posted within the Tool. You agree to review the Terms each time you choose to access/use the Tool, and your continued access or use of the Tool will mean that you agree to any changes.
5. This is a pre-approval application, which is subject to RBC's standard lending criteria and the criteria of a mortgage default insurer (if applicable). Any pre-approval you may receive from RBC directly or indirectly as a result of using the Tool is not a mortgage approval. Should you wish to obtain mortgage financing from RBC, you must submit a separate full application for mortgage financing. If you apply for mortgage financing, you will also be required to submit supporting documentation and to meet RBC's standard lending criteria, and the criteria of a mortgage default insurer (if applicable). Any pre-approval you receive from RBC shall also be subject to you meeting additional terms and conditions as outlined in the pre-approval confirmation letter you receive from RBC, and if you apply for mortgage financing, any mortgage approval you receive from RBC may also be subject to you meeting additional terms and conditions. As such, RBC recommends that you do not waive any financing conditions in any offer to purchase, unless and until you complete a full mortgage application and we provide you with a final approval.

6. Any pre-approval you may receive from RBC shall be provided solely for the purpose of supporting the purchase of a residential property to be used as a primary residence only. For purchase-related transactions, your lawyer/notary will be required, at the time of closing, to confirm that you are eligible to purchase the residential property as defined under the Prohibition on the Purchase of Residential Property by non-Canadians Act. For more information, please refer to Prohibition on the Purchase and of Residential Property by Non-Canadians Act or (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/P-25.2/page-1.html>).
7. You (and any guarantors and/or co-applicants, if applicable) must maintain your credit status as at time of application. RBC reserves the right to decline your request for credit up to and including the closing date of your mortgage based on any changes in your (or, if applicable, your co-applicants' or guarantors') credit status and/or financial circumstances, and/or based on any information you provide to us being false, misleading, or incomplete.
8. The interest rate guarantee set out in any pre-approval you may receive will be time-limited and is also subject to RBC's standard lending criteria and the criteria of a mortgage default insurer (if applicable). If your rate commitment expires, you must contact RBC to update your pre-approval.
9. The down payment is subject to RBC's standard lending criteria and the criteria of a mortgage default insurer (if applicable). You will be required to prove the source of funds in a form and substance satisfactory to RBC and the mortgage default insurer (if applicable). The verification and eligibility of the down payment will be determined once a full application is completed.
10. RBC will require a property valuation supporting the market value of any subject property in accordance with its standard lending criteria. Additional documentation may be required based on your individual situation at the time of a full application.
